

D'Angelo Bros., Inc.

Company Safety Coordinator

Summary Job Description

The primary responsibility of the Construction Safety Coordinator is to ensure that the D'Angelo Bros., Inc. safety program, safety protocols and OSHA requirements are being followed in all aspects of the company's operations. Work to maintain a culture of safety awareness and care for the well being of all persons involved in, or affected by the work of D'Angelo Bros., Inc.

Summary of Duties and Responsibilities.

- Direct and implement safety training for Company personnel.
- Schedule safety training for Company personnel.
- Maintain and update records of safety training for personnel.
- Review and update D'Angelo Safety Program periodically.
- Submit, Coordinate, and implement D'Angelo Safety program for every project.
- Work with Customer/Owner/GC safety personnel to coordinate onsite safety protocols.
- Daily visits to Jobsites to ensure compliance.
- Motivate employees to always promote active culture of safety awareness. Maintain safety incentive programs.
- Work closely with company Supervisory and project management personnel to maintain involvement in planning of current and upcoming work to maintain readiness to implement safety policies and procedures.
- Inspect and monitor daily operations of employees and equipment to observe any possible unsafe conditions and ensure compliance.
- Conduct Safety orientations as required.

- Be aware of current and upcoming job safety requirements.
- Process incident reports and follow up procedures when an accident occurs.
- Maintain working knowledge of current OSHA and industry standards, regulations and construction safety practices and policies.

Contact person: Interested candidates email Robert directly.

Robert N. Bonomo

Risk Control Manager

USI Insurance Services

robert.bonomo@usi.com